Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British Subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette" and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed: but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a justice of the peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared. Dated this 20th day of February, 1869.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

CL. 32.—Royal Warrant respecting Re-engagement into the Army.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 3rd March, 1869.)

VICTORIA R.

Whereas it has been represented to us by our Secretary of State for War that it is expedient to limit the re-engagement of soldiers into our Army to those cases in which men while serving shall renew their engagement for a second term of service :

Our will and pleasure is that on and after the 1st April next, or, in the case of soldiers serving out of the United Kingdom, on and after the thirty-first day after the receipt of this our Warrant at the station, re-engagements shall accordingly be so limited ; provided always that such limitation shall not extend to men who shall have taken their discharge before the aforesaid dates.

And whereas by our Royal Warrant of 29th June, 1867, an addition of 1d. a-day was made to the pay of re-engaged men, we now deem it expedient that the following issues and payments heretofore granted to soldiers at the time of re-engagement, that is to say :—

The free kit, or commutation in lieu thereof ;

The twenty days' marching money ;

The payment of compensation in lieu of clothing from 1st April to date of re-engagement, if such re-engagement should take place before 1st July ;

And the payment of £2 for the provision of winter clothing in North America ; shall cease and determine on the 31st of March next.

Our will and pleasure therefore is that Articles 451 and 454 of our said Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, and Articles 66, 86 and 103 of our Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865, shall on and after the 1st April next stand revised as follows :—

Revised Articles 451 and 454 of Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866.

451. A soldier enlisted under the Army Service Act, 1847, or the Army Enlistment Act, 1867, who while serving shall renew his engagement for a further term, will be entitled, on such re-engagement, to the regulated rate of bounty in force at the time ; the sum of 1s. shall also, if demanded, be payable to the clerk of the magistrate before whom the declaration on re-engagement is made by the soldier ; but rewards shall not in such cases be admissible. Such soldiers shall receive, in addition to bounty, a gratuity of £1, and a furlough for two months, or a pecuniary allowance in lieu thereof (Arts. 564 and 565 as amended by our Royal Warrant of the 9th August, 1867.)

454. A soldier, under the age of 34, and of good character, discharged in the United Kingdom before the 1st April, 1869, or abroad within thirty-one days of the receipt of our Royal Warrant of 27th February, 1869, after the completion of his first term of limited engagement, may, upon production of his parchment certificate of discharge, be permitted to re-engage for any corps of the same arm of the service as that from which he shall have been discharged; and if he re-engage within 12 months from the date of his discharge he shall be permitted to reckon his former service, on application being made by his commanding officer on his behalf to our Secretary of State for War (Art. 472). Such soldier shall receive the free kit of a private, or an allowance in lieu thereof; but no bounty, and no levy money, except as specified in Art. 446, shall be payable in such cases. Soldiers of the Canadian Rifles shall be allowed to reckon their former service irrespective of the interval which may have elapsed since their discharge.

Revised Articles of Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865.

66. A corporal or private, when promoted to be serjeant after the yearly issue of clothing, shall, when practicable, receive the clothing of his predecessor; if not practicable, and the promotion takes place before 1st October, he shall receive the new clothing of his rank, if it can be supplied, and return the old into store. If promoted on or after the 1st October he shall retain his clothing, and receive the difference in money between serjeant's and rank and file clothing, at the regulated rates, from the date of his promotion to the 31st March following. He shall, however, be entitled to the extra serjeant's chevrons at the public expense.

If appointed drummer, the same rule shall be observed, but no compensation granted.

When a serjeant is reduced to the ranks, an exchange of clothing shall be effected with his successor, if possible, or part-worn clothing issued to him. If no part-worn clothing is available he shall be treated as a recruit, returning his former clothing into store. If the clothing so returned be not in a serviceable state, after allowing for fair wear and tear, the soldier shall be charged for the unnecessary damage.

Men whose period of service will expire or who have given notice that they intend to purchase their discharge during the first quarter of the year, namely, from the 1st of April to the 30th of June, shall not be supplied with clothing. Men who do not re-engage for a second period of service shall, on taking their discharge, be paid compensation up to that date.

Men brought forward for discharge between 1st July and 31st December, shall be allowed to take with them from their regiment or dépôt—

One part-worn tunic,

One part-worn pair cloth trowsers or trews,

One pair boots or shoes (Royal Engineers, two pairs, if after 30th September).

These articles shall have been three months at least in wear.

Men discharged after 31st December shall be allowed to take with them such clothing as would have become their property on the following 1st of April, except the regimental head dress, which must be returned into store, and for which no compensation will be allowed.

Men re-engaging for a second period of service, between 1st April and 30th June, shall be supplied, on re-engagement, with such articles of clothing as they would have been entitled to receive on the 1st April preceding, unless they shall have already received the same, and the supply of such articles, together with the boots or shoes which such men may be entitled to receive on 1st October in the year of re-engagement, shall be a full and sufficient discharge of all claims of the said soldiers on account of clothing for the financial year in which they may be re-engaged.

Men re-engaging between 1st July and 31st March shall continue to wear the clothing issued to them on 1st April, and shall, as regards clothing, be dealt with in all respects in the same manner as during an ordinary year of service.

86. The complete kit of necessaries granted by article 441 of our Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, to each man or boy enlisted into our Army, and finally approved by his commanding officer, shall be kept up by the soldier at his own expense.

Soldiers shall, on re-engagement for a second period of service, be required to furnish themselves with the articles of necessaries required to complete their respective kits.

All articles of necessaries shall be served out in the presence of the quartermaster or his serjeant in the place where they are kept in store, and nowhere else; and soldiers must be made to understand that their objection to the articles, if any, must be made before they are taken away from the said stores, or they cannot be attended to.

103. The allowance for the provision of warm clothing shall be drawn only once for each soldier, and shall be charged in the pay list, supported by a certificate signed by the commanding officer, stating that the sum has been expended in the supply of the articles above named, and that no men have been included except those who, to the best of his belief, have not received the allowance previously since their arrival in the country. Volunteers, or men transferred from other regiments who have already received the allowance, will not be entitled to it again, but must bring their winter equipment with them.

Men re-engaging in our North American Colonies, who have received the aforesaid allowance, shall not be entitled, on re-engagement, to a second issue of warm clothing nor to any allowance for the provision thereof. They shall be required to complete, at their own expense, the winter equipment detailed in the foregoing Article (102).

Men re-enlisting will, however, be entitled to the allowance on the 1st October following their re-enlistment.

Commanding officers shall further be allowed to draw 7s. 6d. for each soldier (excepting men re-enlisting) present and effective in their regiments on the 1st October of each subsequent year, to defray the expense of renewals or repairs of the above-named winter equipment.

Given at our Court at Windsor, this 27th day of February, 1869, in the 32nd year of our reign.

By her Majesty's Command,
EDWARD CARDWELL.

Secretary of State's Instructions on the foregoing Royal Warrant.

Clause 54 Army Circulars, 1867, and Clause 17 Army Circulars, 1868, are cancelled from the 1st April next as regards home stations, and from the thirty-first day after the receipt hereof, as regards foreign stations.

Cl. 33.—Royal Warrant increasing the Pensions of Native Officers and Staff Serjeants of the Ceylon Rifles.

VICTORIA R.

Whereas it has been represented unto us that the rates of pension awarded to the native officers and staff serjeants of our Ceylon Rifle Regiment should be increased in proportion to the higher rates allowed by our Royal Warrants of the 19th February, 1868, and 9th May, 1868, to serjeants, corporals and privates on discharge from the said regiment:

Our will and pleasure is, that from and after the 19th February, 1868, the pensions to be allowed to the said native officers and staff serjeants shall be as follows:—

1. Jemidar. 1s. 6d. a day after twenty-one years' service in all grades, with an addition of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. a day for every year's service as jemidar, until the pension shall amount to 1s. 8d. a day, which is to be its maximum.

2. Subadar. 1s. 8d. a day after twenty-one years' service in all grades, with an addition of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. a day for every year he shall have completed as jemidar, and $\frac{1}{4}$ d. a day for every year he shall have completed as subadar; the maximum not exceeding 2s. 4d. a day.

3. A jemidar or subadar, who shall be discharged on account of disability contracted in and by the service before the completion of twenty-one years' service, shall be awarded such a reduced rate of pension as may be determined by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital, with reference to the officer's length of service, and the nature and degree of his disability; the pension so awarded being held together with the additions for service as jemidar and subadar, specified in Articles 1 and 2.

4. A jemidar disabled in action shall receive £1 monthly, and a subadar £1:10s. monthly, in addition to the pension to which their length of service may respectively entitle them.

5. Staff serjeants shall receive, in addition to the pensions which may be granted to them as serjeants, under our Royal Warrants of 19th February and 9th May, 1868, an addition of $\frac{1}{4}$ d. a day for every year they shall have completed as staff serjeants.

6. A native adjutant shall receive, in addition to the pension which may be granted to him as jemidar or subadar, $\frac{1}{4}$ d. a day for every year he may have completed as an adjutant.

Given at our Court at Windsor, this 18th day of March, 1869, in the 32nd year of our reign.

By her Majesty's command,
EDWARD CARDWELL.

Cl. 34.—Pay of Civilian Office Keepers.

The pay of office keepers appointed in future under Article 680 of the Royal Warrant of 3rd February, 1866, will be granted for six days a week only. When they are necessarily employed on Sundays they will receive extra pay for the time so occupied.

The foregoing regulation will not be made applicable to individuals who have hitherto received pay for seven days a week.

Cl. 35.—Travelling Expenses of Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses.

On and after the 1st April, 1869, the travelling expenses of regimental schoolmasters and schoolmistresses when proceeding with troops under a route, will, instead of being separately submitted to the War Office, be charged by the paymaster in his regimental pay list, vouched by the route, in which the necessary particulars will be inserted.

STORES.Cl. 36.—Return of Military Stores from Foreign Stations.

With a view to avoid expense in the hire of freights for stores to be returned to this country from stations abroad, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have given directions to the commanders in chief on Foreign Stations to notify to the military authorities whenever any of her Majesty's ships under orders for home have available space for the reception of military stores.

These directions have been given on the understanding that no detention will be caused to any of her Majesty's ships, and general officers commanding the troops, and acting controllers, will give the necessary instructions for stores awaiting conveyance to this country to be held in readiness for shipment, so that no delay may arise after receipt of the notification from the naval authorities.

Cl. 37.—Nipple Wrenches.

Military store officers are directed to receive the nipple wrenches to be returned into store in accordance with the instructions contained in General Orders for the present month.

Cl. 38.—Disinfectants at Isolated Stations.

Issues of disinfectants at isolated stations, when very emergent, may be made on the requisition of the principal medical officer of the garrison or post, and sanctioned by the officer in immediate command; the circumstances being reported through the general or other officer commanding, in accordance with Clause 92 Army Circulars, 1867.

DISTRIBUTION OF ARMY CIRCULARS.Cl. 39.

1. An additional copy of this, and every future month's Army Circular, will be sent to each regiment and depot battalion, to enable the commanding officer to supply a copy to any one of the regimental staff whose duties may be referred to therein.

2. General officers abroad will be guided by this rule in distributing Army Circulars to the troops under their command.

EDWARD LUGARD.

G. O. 28.—Re-engagements.

I. By the Royal Warrant of 27th February, 1869, the re-engagement of soldiers, on and after the 1st of April next, if at home, and on and after the thirty-first day after the receipt of such warrant, if serving abroad, is limited to those cases in which men, while serving, shall renew their engagement for a second term of service.

II. Boards of officers that assemble after these dates, to record the services of soldiers who claim their discharge on the expiration of their first period of service, will cause this General Order to be read to them so that they may be fully aware that they voluntarily forfeit all claim to be re-engaged.

III. Pending a reprint of the forms of parchment certificate (W. O. Form 64) and declaration made by the soldier (W. O. Form 83), the boards will correct these forms, as follows, viz.:—

Parchment Certificate.—Alter the sentence at the top of the second page of the parchment certificate in the following manner:—*

“No soldiers [of good character] who may be discharged after the completion of the first term of limited service will be permitted to re-engage [into the same arm of the service as that from which they were discharged, and] but soldiers of good character who may be discharged during the first term of limited service will be permitted to re-enlist into any arm of the service, if [in either case] they are not above thirty-four years of age, and provided they shall declare the period of their former service and produce their parchment certificate of discharge; but they will not be allowed to reckon their former service towards good conduct pay and pension, unless they [re-engage or] re-enlist within twelve months from the date of their discharge.

* The words in Italic to be inserted and those within brackets to be omitted.

"Soldiers discharged during their second term of limited service cannot be permitted to re-enter the Army [a third time] again.

"Discharged soldiers may join the Army of reserve under certain conditions, which can be ascertained on application to the staff officer of any pension district."

Soldier's Declaration.—Substitute the words "or to re-engagement" for the remainder of the present sentence after the word "pension" in the soldier's declaration.

IV. Soldiers who, while serving abroad, decline to re-engage, and are sent home for discharge, will not be allowed to alter their minds on arriving at home, but their discharges will be carried out.

V. This General Order is to be read on three successive parades, and explained to the men.

This G. O. is to be substituted for G. O. 28, issued specially on 6th March, which should be destroyed.

G.O. 29.—Correspondence. (Quarter Master General.)

(Specially issued 6th March, 1869.)

With reference to G. O. 27 of 1869, it is to be understood that, pending a revise of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, the regulations and instructions issued from time to time by the Secretary of State for War, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, for the conduct of duties and correspondence under the Control system are to be acted upon, and all provisions of the Queen's Regulations with which they may be inconsistent (even when such provisions are not specially referred to in the instructions for Control duties which supersede them) are suspended.

G.O. 30.—Depot Battalions.

(Specially issued 13th March, 1869.)

I. The Queen has been pleased to approve of the reduction, from the 1st of April next, of the 3rd, 11th, 12th and 14th Depot Battalions, and of the under-mentioned alterations in the numbering of two of the remainder, so as to form consecutive numbers from 1 to 11 inclusive, viz. :—

The 13th Depot Battalion is to be the 3rd, and

The 15th " " " 11th.

II. All other Depot Battalions will retain the same numbers as at present.

III. For six months after the alteration, the old as well as the new number is to be given in all official documents, as 3rd late 13th Depot Battalion.

G.O. 31.—Staff College.

Paragraph IX. of G. O. 102 of 1868, is to be altered as follows, viz. :—

IX. Candidates who shall have proved their fitness for employment in the Topographical Depot, by superior progress in the higher course of mathematics, as well as in topography, will be named in the report of the Council of Military Education as deserving of such employment.

G.O. 32.—Embarkations. (Quarter Master General.)

Paragraph 1180 of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army" is hereby cancelled, and the following amended paragraph is to be substituted :—

"1180. Dinners for the day on which troops embark for foreign service will always be prepared for them on board ship, unless the officer commanding the regiment or corps to which they belong shall send timely notice to the officer commanding at the port of embarkation that dinners will not be required on board on that day, in which case the latter officer will apprise the naval authorities at the port."

G.O. 33.—Officers' Dress.

The attention of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief having been drawn to the great want of uniformity in the dress sashes, belts and trowser stripes worn by infantry officers at Her Majesty's courts, His Royal Highness requests that the regulation patterns may be strictly adhered to, especially as regards the width of the gold and crimson stripes.

General officers, at their inspections, will be pleased to ascertain that no deviation from the description, as laid down in G.O. 79 of 1868, has been made.

Officers who are no longer on the staff are not entitled to appear in staff uniform.

G.O. 34.—Duties.

Several instances having recently occurred in which officers on leave from regiments on foreign service, when required for the performance of duty in this country, or on the return voyage, have stated that they are without uniform, it is hereby directed that officers are always to be in possession of their uniform; otherwise, if detailed for duty, they will be required to provide themselves with a fresh outfit.

G.O. 35.—Medals.

I. Officers, non-commissioned officers and soldiers who have received medals from the Royal Humane Society for acts of bravery in saving life, are authorized to wear them on all occasions when in uniform.

II. In cases when an officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier may be deemed worthy of receiving a second mark of distinction for saving life, the Royal Humane Society have, with the concurrence of H.R.H. the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, agreed to add a clasp or bar to the medal already granted.

G.O. 36.—Musketry.

The attention of commanding officers of regiments and depôts is called to para. 9, page 3 of the Musketry Regulations,—the orders contained in which are frequently overlooked, as regards the regimental monthly returns.

G.O. 37.—Forage. (Quarter Master General.)

I. Referring to paragraphs 583 and 585, Queen's Regulations, the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief calls attention to the necessity of exercising great discretion in rejecting forage, on its issue to the troops, under the system in force at large cavalry stations of obtaining it in bulk from contractors and making the distribution through the commissaries of supply.

II. The forage having been passed into the stores by military and commissariat officers, the loss will have to be borne by the public in the event of capricious rejections.

III. Officers must be careful not to demand forage of a better quality than that allowed by the contract, and His Royal Highness desires that a strict inspection may be made at the time of issue. The inspecting officers will be held responsible that good and sufficient reasons are assigned by them on all occasions of rejection.

IV. In the case of hay and straw, it must be specially shown in what particulars they are not up to the quality described in the conditions of contract; and, in addition to this, in regard to oats, it must be shown that the weight of a bushel taken indiscriminately has been verified, and that it is not equal to the weight stipulated for in the contract.

G.O. 38.—Discharges.

In order to prevent soldiers who have joined the reserve force enrolling themselves a second time by means of mutilated certificates of service, commanding officers are requested not to issue more than one certificate to a discharged soldier. Copies of the record of a man's services are to be supplied to staff officers of pensioners, if asked for.

G.O. 39.—Saddlers.

Commanding officers of cavalry regiments will, in future, detail assistant saddlers for duty with detachments.

When there are three or more detachments the saddler serjeant alone should be retained at head quarters, and, in the event of his having the repairs of more than two troops (including the repair of saddlery left at head quarters by the troops at out stations), he should be allowed, if necessary, the assistance of one or more handy men, who will be entitled to working pay, under Art. 542 of the Royal Warrant, 3rd February, 1866, for the time they are fully employed.

When detachments are near to each other the assistant saddlers should, if necessary, proceed from one station to another to perform repairs.

Care should be taken to avoid, as much as possible, the employment of civilians; but, whenever it is found necessary to employ either civilians or men on working pay, a return showing the distribution of the saddlers should accompany the claim for wages or work done.

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 40.—Clothing.

Quarter masters of regiments are not to be sent to detachments for the purpose of superintending the fitting of the annual clothing, and officers commanding detachments will be made responsible for the proper fitting of their men.

G.O. 41.—Clothing.

Instances having occurred in which great coats, cloaks and capes in use on ordinary home service have become unserviceable before they have been worn the prescribed period, commanding officers will issue such orders as will ensure greater care being taken of these garments.

Any damage, beyond fair wear and tear, must be made good by the soldier.

G.O. 42.—Arms.

Commanding officers will return into store the nipple-wrenches in possession of private soldiers, retaining those having cramps for serjeants and corporals:—i. e., eight per company.

The screw end of the T head should be converted into a small screw-driver for the band screws, by regimental armourers, without expense to the public.

G.O. 43.—Equipment.

The Secretary of State for India having addressed a representation to the Secretary of State for War to the effect that regiments have not unfrequently embarked from this country for India, with portions of their equipment in an unserviceable condition, Mr. Cardwell has concurred in an arrangement by which the surveying officers of the India and War Departments shall arrange for the replacement of any stores which they may find, at their inspection, to be unserviceable.

As, however, it is important that the responsibility for the equipments of a regiment being in proper condition should rest with the commanding officer, it is to be understood that this course has only been sanctioned upon the condition that officers commanding regiments under survey shall sign a joint report with the surveying officers, to the effect that the replacement of any particular store has been found absolutely necessary.

By command,

W. PAULET, Adj. Gen.
